DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

This office action is in response to amendment filed on 10/26/2006. Of the original claims 1-42, claims 25-29, 36, 41, and 42 have been amended and claims 20-24, 30-35, and 37-39 have been cancelled.

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-19, 25-29, 36, and 40-42 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The invention of Ahn et al. pertains to a locking mechanism that secures a mobile telephone battery cover. The object of the invention is to provide a more secure locking arrangement for the battery cover than conventional locking mechanisms in order to overcome external impacts such as from dropping the mobile telephone on the ground (page 2, paragraph 5).

The locking mechanism of Ahn et al. comprises "at least one latching member" and "at least one spring loaded locking member". The spring loaded locking member comprises spacing to "securely engage the latching member". When the latching member is being inserted into the locking member, it forces the "locking member to move against its spring bias". During this operation, the latching member comprises "first and second surfaces" for securely engaging with "a first locking leg" and "a second locking leg" of the spring loaded locking member. To release the latching member, "means for moving the spring loaded locking member against its spring bias" to allow the latching member to "disengage" from the spring loaded locking member is provided. The novelty of the invention lies in the structure of the components of the locking mechanism and the components operation for engaging and disengaging the latching member.

Accordingly, Applicant's claims are allowed for these reasons and for the reasons recited by the Applicant in the amendment filed on 4/4/2006 and 10/26/2006.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
